BALTIMORE ART, ANTIQUE & JEWELRY SHOW

BALTIMORE ART, ANTIQUE & JEWELRY SHOW OPENS WITH A BANG Thousands poured through the doors on Opening Day

Sales are booming this summer here in Baltimore. Security guards kept the throng at bay until the 12pm start time, when the buzzing group began to pour through the doors and into the show

Baltimore, MD – (August 24, 2017) Crowds gathered early at the Baltimore Convention Center to attend the 37th annual Baltimore Art, Antique &

Jewelry Show. Security guards kept eager collectors and shoppers at bay until the doors were opened at noon on Thursday, August 24. The overwhelming consensus was that the show has solidified its reputation as the most important art and antique event in the country.

"The selection, quality and attendance gets better every year," stated Ashley Templeton from Guarisco Gallery "The attendees are well informed, knowledgeable and eager to purchase."

Many shoppers described their experience at the Baltimore Art, Antique & Jewelry Show as 'invaluable: something that cannot be replicated at any other event in the country'.

"The more refined selection of participating dealers and the new floor layout has made shopping the sizable show a more enjoyable experience," stated a long time Baltimore Show attendee and private collector.

"Throughout the years I have watched this show develop into one of the most important events in the industry for both dealers and collectors," said Edo Ophir of Ophir Gallery. "We are very excited to be here and look forward to another great show."

The Baltimore Art, Antique & Jewelry Show runs through Sunday, August 27 and is expected to draw an overwhelming crowd throughout its four-day tenure at the Baltimore Convention Center. For additional details and ticket information visit www.baltimoresummershow.com.
