Palm Beach Show Group Announces Charitable Addition to the Baltimore Show Proudly Partnering with Alex's Lemonade Stand Foundation

AUGUST 29 – SEPTEMBER 1, 2019 • Labor Day Weekend

Fighting Childhood Cancer One Cup at a Time!

(Baltimore, Maryland – August 13, 2019) – Going on its 39th year, the Baltimore Art, Antique & Jewelry Show anticipates its return to the Inner Harbor at the Baltimore Convention Center over Labor Day Weekend, August 29 - September 1, 2019. As the largest summer collectors' event, the Baltimore Show looks forward to welcoming back hundreds of international exhibitors and 30,000 attendees – and now, all while supporting a cause.

This year, visitors of the Baltimore Art, Antique & Jewelry Show will have the chance to shop while supporting Alex's Lemonade Stand Foundation (ALSF) and the Palm Beach Show Group's efforts in raising funds to help find a cure for Childhood Cancer. Contributions will be collected online on our dedicated donation page as well as at the Show's new Baltimore Lemonade Bar & Lounge where patrons can donate directly to ALSF.

Alex's Lemonade Stand Foundation shares the vision of their founder and creator, Alexandra "Alex" Scott — a cure for all children with cancer. As stated on their website, ALSF's mission is to "change the lives of children with cancer through funding impactful research, raising awareness, supporting families, and empowering everyone to help cure childhood cancer."

The Palm Beach Show Group is excited to bring a charitable component to the Baltimore Art, Antique & Jewelry Show for the first time in many years. "We are thrilled to have partnered with Alex's Lemonade Stand Foundation this year and look forward to raising funds to help find a cure for childhood cancers through our shows philanthropic efforts," stated Jaime Kantor, the COO of the Palm Beach Show Group. Cancer has affected everyone, whether it be directly or indirectly, and we believe that bringing a humanitarian aspect to the art, antique & jewelry show is our way of giving back to those impacted.
