Annual Baltimore Art, Antique & Jewelry Show Postponed ANNOUNCING EXCITING NEW FALL DATES

November 12-15, 2020 • Celebrating 40 Years

Baltimore, MD (May 26, 2020) – Celebrating 40 years, the Baltimore Art, Antique & Jewelry Show, originally slated for late summer, has been postponed until November 12-15, 2020. Following the City of Baltimore's Executive Order update to cancel public events through August 30th, arrangements were secured with the Baltimore Convention Center to move the Show to later in the fall. It is in the best interest and safety of our clients, collectors, partners and staff to host the four-day event over later this year.

The Palm Beach Show Group remains committed to cultivating a marketplace for art, antique & jewelry exhibitors. As producers, we are very pleased with the ideally timed November dates which allow us to continue to support industry momentum through outreach to collectors, decorators, appraisers and art advisors to come out and show their support for the industry.

"There are clear benefits to the show dates moving later in the year, and more specifically during the 4th quarter. We are pleased to be among the industry's planned cooperative efforts in fall 2020 that support and promote the importance of collecting," stated Scott Diamant, President and CEO of the Palm Beach Show Group.

Featuring domestic and international exhibitors, the Baltimore Show is one of the largest international art, antique & jewelry shows in the United States. With a long standing reputation known by collectors as the most comprehensive and diverse event in the Mid-Atlantic Region, the Baltimore Show offers a variety of collections including furniture, American and European silver, major works of art, Asian antiquities, porcelain, Americana, antique and estate jewelry, glass, textiles, contemporary fine crafts and more.

We remain united as a community as we forge ahead during these unique circumstances and look forward to producing a successful Baltimore Show.
